

Media Contact
Hospice of the Valley
Jeanne Wun
Community Relations
jwun@hospicevalley.org
1.408.489.6787

Hospice of the Valley receives $1,000 MGN Family Foundation Grant for its Transitions Program

Grant will provide extensive support to adults, children and families living with serious illness

San Jose, Calif., –January 30, 2013 – Hospice of the Valley, a leading provider in advancing palliative, hospice care, community grief support and education in Northern California, receives a $1,000 grant from the MGN Family Foundation of Jupiter, FL in support of the organization’s Transitions Program that enhances the quality of life for adults, children and their families living with a serious illness. Provided at no charge, the Transitions Program offers emotional support, education on living with a serious illness and coordination to help the client and family find and utilize community resources and navigate the healthcare system.

“MGN Family Foundation is pleased to support Hospice of the Valley’s Transitions Program,” said Marcia Nappi, founder of MGM Family Foundation. “We believe fervently in the support they provide the community to enhance quality end-of-life care.”

“We are honored to receive a grant from the MGN Family Foundation for the Transitions Program,” said Sally Adelus, president and chief executive officer of Hospice of the Valley. “The Foundation’s support affirms the unique service and support we provide to our clients and their families living with a serious illness.

About MGN Family Foundation

The MGN Family Foundation goals are to make grants in the fields of education, health care, medical research, and children's programs, and to help those in the U.S. Military, including their families. It is the intent of the Foundation to award grants based on achievement, excellence, influence, impactful work, or leadership in a specific field of charitable endeavor.

About Hospice of the Valley

Based in the heart of California's Silicon Valley, Hospice of the Valley provides end-of-life care and services, including hospice, palliative care and counseling for adults and children. The Transitions Program offers emotional support, education, and practical assistance for families facing serious illness. Hospice of the Valley publishes a community website for caregivers and families at seriousillness.org/santaclaracounty. A nonprofit organization serving Santa Clara County since 1979, Hospice of the Valley honors all cultures, beliefs, values, and traditions and is committed to serving its diverse community and providing equitable access to care for all regardless of financial ability. For information, call 1.408.559.5600 or visit hospicevalley.org.

###