

Remember your loved one with a gift to Hospice of the Valley

And illuminate a winter's night with warmth and light in memory of loved ones

SAN JOSE, Calif. – November 18, 2013 – As the holiday season draws near, Hospice of the Valley, a leading provider in advancing palliative, hospice care, community grief support and education in Northern California, will bring our community together to give thanks, celebrate in gratitude, and honor loved ones.

This holiday season Hospice of the Valley's Community Life program invites you, your family and friends to join us for Lights of Love on Tuesday, December 3, 2013 and/or Thursday, December 5, 2013 from 6 pm to 7 pm at Hospice of the Valley, located at 4850 Union Avenue, San Jose CA 95124. Admission is free and refreshments will be served.

We will illuminate a winter's night with warmth and light in memory of loved ones - and if you make a donation of $50 or more in memory of your loved one you will receive a special commemorative candle at the Lights of Love event.

To make a donation to Hospice of the Valley and to RSVP, visit hospicevalley.org/holiday13

Whether you have received Hospice of the Valley's services, attended programs or know someone who has, your gift this holiday season will ensure that others who are facing serious illness or experiencing grief and loss of any kind will receive the support they need.

About Hospice of the Valley

Hospice of the Valley is a nonprofit organization in Silicon Valley that provides serious illness and end-of-life care programs and services, including palliative and hospice care, grief counseling for adults, children and families, and emotional support, education and practical assistance. The organization also provides individual counseling and loss-specific support groups to anyone who has experienced the loss of a loved one.

Established in July 2013, the Palliative Care Center Silicon Valley™, the first independent, community-based, outpatient center of its kind in California for seriously ill patients and their families, is a division of Hospice of the Valley. Hospice of the Valley also provides a community resource website for caregivers and families at seriousillness.org/santaclaracounty. Serving Santa Clara County since 1979, Hospice of the Valley honors all cultures, beliefs, values and traditions and is committed to serving its diverse community and providing equitable access to care for all regardless of financial ability. For more information, call 408.559.5600 or visit hospicevalley.org.
